

In Someone Else's Shoes

An X-dressing TG

Day Laborer

Amputee

Friday, May 15
5 pm
Revelle Family
Student Center
(aka Surfside)

Indigenous womyn

What would it be like to walk in someone else's shoes?

Maya womyn in Guatemala and other indigenous womyn from Mapucha Territory in Argentina, Peru, Thailand, and the Zapatista Autonomous Communities demonstrate courageous strength against economic, political, and military attacks against their culture and femicide in their communities. This is just one example. At this special TG, we encourage you to take the opportunity to come respectfully dressed as someone different and think about what it would be like to walk in their shoes.

Grassroots Diversity Action Working Group (GDAWG-SIO) is a volunteer organization that values diversity, including, but not limited to, socioeconomic, ethnic, gender, sexual, ability, religious, cultural, and intellectual diversity. The mission of GDAWG is to increase the inclusivity and diversity of our SIO community.

For more information:

Website gdawg-sio.org / Email gdawg.sio@gmail.com